

People & Trees

What am I?

Study the information in People & Trees and identify these materials that come from trees.

1

I'm a sticky substance that comes from trees and can be found in medicines and food.

2

I'm made from the parts of trees that would otherwise go to waste and used to make many products, including paper and particleboard.